Controversy, they wrote
(books that proved controversial in their day)

Dennis Lillee
Arguably Australia's greatest fast bowler, Dennis Lillee made headlines with some of the assertions in his first volume of his autobiography, Back to the Mark, in 1974. Talking about his attitude to opponents, he wrote : 'I try to hit a batsman in the rib-cage when I bowl a purposeful bouncer, and I want it to hurt so much that the batsman doesn't want to face me anymore'.
The purists were appalled. Lillee was unconcerned.

Odd Jobs after retiring from the game
Wes Hall
Wes Hall spent the first part of his life bowling like the Devil, and more recent times trying to save people from the Lord of Evil. In 1990, as Barbados tourism minister, Hall visited Florida to see if he could discover a few cricketers. Visiting a church, he was so impressed by the sermon he immediately decided to turn his life to god. Since then Reverend Wes, an ordained minister in the Pentecostal Church, has taken a more religious view of life.

Actual Letter Sent to the Daily Telegraph

13th September 2005

Sir - I am the proud owner of a new MCC cricket cap, purchased in the members shop in the pavilion at Lord's, clearly marked 'Made in Australia'.

Three to stump you

- 1 Which current Gloucestershire player played in the Bangladesh Premier League during this winter ?
- 2 Which two countries played their first test matches in the 1930s ?
- 3 What is the name of Robin Smith's brother who played 8 tests for England between 1983-86 ?

Strange scorecards down the years

Winning without losing a wicket
Lancashire defeated Leicestershire at Old Trafford in 1956 without losing a wicket. Alan Wharton and Jack Dyson added 166 in the first innings before a declaration, and knocked off a target of 65 without being separated either.
No side had previously won a first-class match without losing a wicket (although it has happened a couple of times since).

On this day (20th May)

This day in 1965 saw a shock for the members at Middlesbrough, as Yorkshire were skittled for their lowest ever total, a pathetic 23, by Hampshire.

The side included some big names : Boycott, Hampshire, Close, Sharpe, Illingworth and Trueman, but after a sound start Yorkshire tumbled from 7 for 0 to 13 for 8.
Yorkshire had also been 47 for 7 in their first innings, and only a rumbustious 55 from Trueman got them anywhere near first-innings parity. Hampshire needed just 20 to win, and they scraped home in eight overs with ten wickets to spare.

Initially The Same (name the following : they both have the same initials)

- * Current Hambrook Cricket Club player
- * BBC anchor man at the World Snooker C'ship 1978-2000

Away from the crease

- 1 Who invented the jet engine in 1937 ?
- 2 In Only Fools and Horses what was the name of the singing dustman who had a speech impediment ?
- 3 Name the head coach and his three assistants for the British Lions tour to New Zealand this year ?
