Controversy, they wrote

(books that proved controversial in their day)

Herschelle Gibbs

The 2010 offering from the South African opener, 'To the Point', called itself a no-holds barred autobiography. And it was certainly frank about his exploits on, and particularly off, the pitch. Gibbs discussed his team-mates equally openly. Most of them accepted it but, as Gibbs admitted recently, Graeme Smith and Jacques Kallis didn't like it much. Perhaps it is no surprise that after upsetting the captain and the senior allrounder, Gibbs never played another test.

Odd Jobs after retiring from the game

Chris Old

Chris Old works at Sainsbury's in Truro. The Tim Bresnan of the 1970s, the bowler who skidded India for 42 in his debut series, now stacks shelves, mans tills and lugs crates and boxes around the warehouse.

Before that, Old, who stood at the other end while Ian Botham flayed the Aussies around Headingley in 1981, had a chip shop in Praa Sands, five miles from St Michael's Mount.

Actual Letter Sent to the Daily Telegraph

8th January 2007

Sir - Following the triumphant open-topped bus tour through London in 2005, should the current England cricket team be made to fly home from this disaster in Australia in an open-topped plane?

Three to stump you

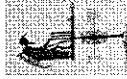

- What appropriately number shirt did Joe Root wear at this years Champion Trophy tournament ?
- In December 2016, who became the first player since Matt Prior to score a century on his England test debut ?
- Who captained Pakistan to victory in this years Champions Trophy tournament ?

Strange scorecards down the years

Biggest defeat in the history of first-class cricket behind the sofa. The first-class debut of Pakistan team Dera Ismail Khan, in Lahore in 1964, resulted in the biggest mismatch of all. Pakistan Railways, a decent side but without any test players, ran up 910 for 6. Dera Ismail Khan, a team of 11 debutants, responded with totals of 32 and 27. They subsequently disappeared off the first-class map for years.

On this day (24th June)

This day in 1960 saw the only Lord's hat-trick. In his second test, South Africa's Geoff Griffin dismissed MJK Smith, Peter Walker and Fred Trueman with consecutive deliveries. But this was also the day he bowled his last ball in tests. Griffin was no-balled for throwing 11 times, having previously been called 17 times in a tour match. He played no further tests and did not bowl again on the tour. He took 8 wickets @ 24.00 in his two test matches. For the record, Griffin had suffered an accident in childhood which rendered him unable to straighten his right arm.

Initially The Same

(name the following : they both have the same initials)
* Current Hambrook Cricket Club player
* Refereed the 1985 world snooker final between Davis / Taylor

Away from the crease

- Name the constituency beginning with 'M' which has Teresa May as it's MP ?
- What is the stage name of Ian and Janet Tough ?
- With which sport would you associate the words Keirin and Demy ?
