Controversy, they wrote

(books that proved controversial in their day)

John Arlott

After the death of the much-loved commentator John Arlott in 1991, the publication three years later of his son Timothy's memories of him upset some, probably because the book was honest about Arlott's failings as well as his many qualities. 'He could be morose and difficult,' Timothy wrote. But it was essentially affectionate, and ended with the widely held view that 'we will never know his like again.'

Odd Jobs after retiring from the game

Paul Hutchison

Paul Hutchison always cut a suave figure on the cricket field. Tall, straight backed and immaculately turned out. No wonder. His family have run a tailor's business since 1955. Hutchison, who took 7 for 38 on his first-class debut against Pakistan A, and 7 for 50 on his championship debut against Hampshire, invites his customers to an initial no-obligation consultation to discuss cloth and design requirements. The shop is in Pudsey.

- Current Worcestershire batsman who also bowls a bit

Actual Letter Sent to the Daily Telegraph

7th January 1999

Sir - I notice that David Lloyd, the England cricket coach, is reported to saying : 'I want us to be more aggressive. I want us to be more in the face And I want us to hustle and have more intensity'.

Might I suggest as an alternative, he finds a team who holds its catches, includes batsmen who score runs consistently and a spin bowler who actually turns the ball ?

Three to stump you

- Which Andy won the man-of-the-match award for Gloucestershire in the 1977 B & H cup final at Lord's ?
- Which four sides have made it to this seasons county T20 finals day at Edgbaston ?
- When Geraint Jones took the famous match winning catch v Australia at Edgbaston in 2005, who was the batsman ?

Strange scorecards down the years

Totals of 15 and 521

It's a famous match, but the scorecard still has the capacity to amaze. After Warwickshire made 223 at Edgbaston in 1922, Hampshire collapsed to 15 all out. Hampshire followed on and ran up 521, setting a target of 314... and Warwickshire barely got half way.

On this day (2nd September)

On this day in 1980, as the rain-hit centenary test petered out at Lord's, Australia's Kim Hughes became only the third man to bat on all five days of a test match. He made 117 and 84.

But the day was probably more memorable for John Arlott's final stint behind the microphone. As the famous commentator ended his long career with the BBCs Test Match Special, play stopped and the whole ground stood up to applaud him.

This day in 1978 saw Somerset lose a Gillette Cup Final. Without a major trophy on their sideboard, they were all out for 207 despite a hard hitting 80 by Ian Botham. They lost by five wickets to Sussex.

Initially The Same

(name the following : they both have the same initials)
* Current Hambrook Cricket Club player
* German big band leader & composer who died in 2015

Away from the crease

- Who is the mascot of Hartlepool Football Club, and what is the connection with the town ?
- Who was the infamous SS Officer and physician at the Aushwitz concentration camp during world war two ?
- What character did Todd Carty play in 'The Bill' ?
